

School of Language, Media and Culture
Postgraduate studies
Learn site guide 2017

To access the learn.nmmu.ac.za site, visit the following site:

<http://learn.nmmu.ac.za/login/index.php>

Log on using the username and password given to you at registration or the details you make use of when logging on to a computer at NMMU.

When logged on to the site, the following tabs will appear on the main screen. Point your mouse to “Faculty of Arts” and click once.

The following list will appear once you have clicked on the “Faculty of Arts” tab:

Click on “School of Language, Media and Culture.” A list of modules will appear.

Scroll down until you see “Postgraduate studies” and click on the link.

To access reading material, scroll down until you see the icons displayed below. These icons indicate that you can click on the document and download a PDF or Word version of the material.

Example:

To download the notes, simply click on each link (the wording next to the icon) and save the document to your PC/ flash drive.

Disclaimer

All reasonable steps have been taken to ensure that the information contained on the site was accurate at the date of publication and distribution. The university reserves the right to make changes to the details as deemed necessary. Any changes made to the dates will be published via communiqué and the staff portal.

---